

Stephanie Kozemchak

Stephanie has worked for United Way of Central New Mexico for over eight years raising funds for our local nonprofits in our community. She is a Senior Corporate Relations Officer focusing on the Government, Healthcare, Insurance, Tourism and Transportation sectors.

She is also the Manager of the Hispanic Philanthropic Society donor group which promotes Hispanic leadership in philanthropy through recognition, engagement and development of Hispanic talent to advance cultural prosperity in our community.

Stephanie was born and raised in Albuquerque and is Spanish and American Native. She has worked in government, private and nonprofit and has been a business owner of her own. Stephanie is currently on the Cottonwood Classical Preparatory School foundation board.