

Helen Chan

Helen is an adopted New Mexican, transplanted from Hong Kong to the Bay Area eventually landing in the Land of Enchantment. Helen grew up learning the New Mexico business landscape through her family businesses in Las Cruces.

Helen's background has been in the service industry in different forms. First through volunteering as a child in nursing homes and learning skills in Girl Scouts. Then moving through the restaurant and fast food industry. After graduating from New Mexico State University, Helen ventured to Japan after accepting an opportunity to teach English as a foreign language. This included collegiate preparation as well as offering insight on cultural nuances for working abroad. This opportunity allowed her an eventual transition to be a train the trainer in different areas of the aviation industry as well as moving into supervisory and managerial roles with an airline company.

Helen currently is a Realtor serving the Albuquerque Metro Area. Helen also serves as a Director on the Board of the Greater Albuquerque Association of Realtors(GAAR) while dividing time volunteering on different committees for professional and personal development and community outreach. The most recent committee Helen has taken part of is the creation of the local diversity committee at GAAR.
